

We are an extremely low-budget LPFM station which is greatly appreciated in our community. Some of the proposals in this docket would create hardships for continuing to broadcast, but the full-time, on site staffing item would probably force us to close down